Seeks to Regulate Traffic of Motor

Annual License

REFERRED TO A COMMITTEE

City Council Approves Morgan
Street Paving and Passes Ordinance for Park Bond Issue

Considerable business came before the city council Tuesday night, when they met in regular session, and foremost among the matters of importance was the introduction of an ordinance regulating and licensing motor busses, approval of a petition to pave Morgan street, allowing the garbage contract and the passage of an ordinance for a bond issue to purchase and improve Memorial park.

The ordinance introduced for the regulation, licensing and making it necessary for the bus transportation companies to provide liability insurance, was read, and was referred to the ordinance committee to investigate and report the next meeting night.

The proposed ordinance defines what streets cannot be used by the large motor busses, excluding the use of Main from First to Sixth, Perkins south of Sixth, Third from Buena Vista Avenue to Perkins Second from the avenue to Main. The license fee for such busses is based on a seating capacity, with the following rates, 7 passengers or less, $75; more than 7, and not exceeding 12, $100; 12 to 18, $125; 18 to 24, $150; more than 24, $200. The fees to be collected and paid annually.

There was no discussion on the ordinance at the meeting, and the matter will be taken up for further consideration at the next session.

The petition of property owners in Morgan street, asking that the street be paved from Third to Seventh, was granted, after having been investigated since the last meeting, and in granting the petition, it was amended to include several additional blocks, extending from the extreme south end of Morgan street, at Water street, to Seventh.

The engineer was ordered to make the necessary survey and report at the next meeting night, and work will probably be started this fall on the street, if the remonstrators don't kill the movement.

Several merchants in West Second street offered a petition asking that the street be cleared of traffic and

ONE FIELD OF WHEAT AVERAGES 27 BUSHELS

Ten Acres Yield High On Gowdy
Farm And Rest Of Crop Will
Not Be Far Behind

BEST REPORTED IN COUNTY

The best yield of wheat in Rush county reported this season was made on one of the Gowdy farms west of Rushville, a ten-acre field threshed Tuesday evening averaging twenty-seven bushels to the acre. It is the farm tenanted by George Deerin.

There are fifty acres of wheat on the farm where Deerin lives and it is expected that it will come very close to equalling the record made by the ten acre field although the latter was regarded as the best field on the place. A field of twenty-five acres was being threshed today and it was confidently expected that the average would be between twenty and twenty-five bushels to the acre.

The wheat is of exceptionally good quality. Part of the ten acre field is being stored for seed wheat and the remainder is being sold at Arlington.

A total of 180 acres on the Gowdy farms, all lying just east of Arlington, will be harvested this year, and all of the fields look good, giving rise to the belief that the average for the whole crop will be high.

Threshing was general throughout Rush county, but no yields were reported which equaled that on the Gowdy farm.

HE AGREES WITH BROOKHART

Senator-Elect Johnson Believes Special Session Should be Held

St. Paul, Minn., July 18—Senator-elect Magnus Johnson, Minnesota today joined Senator Brookhart of Iowa in demanding that a special session of congress be called "to save the wheat farmer from ruin by low prices."

Johnson also announced that he is considering calling a conference of senators and congressmen from wheat states to discuss the situation which he fears will result in a national calamity.

The proposed special congress should establish a minimum wheat price and otherwise correct economic conditions, the farm-labor victor in Monday's senatorial election declared.

WASHINGTON NOT TO DISCUSS DEBTS

High Officials Say This Country Will
Not Join in Effort to Settle Ruhr
Reparations Dispute

(By United Press)

Washington, July 18—The United States government will refuse to participate in the British plan for settlement of the Ruhr and reparations crisis, if it involves the question of allied debts to this country, it was indicated in high official quarters here today.

Premier Baldwin of Great Britain in his speech in parliament last week referred to the interallied debts, stating that a settlement of this question is one of the essentials to dispelling the cloud now hanging over Europe.

Both high officials and diplomatic quarters here replied to this subject. Baldwin has made a mistake if he hopes that the United States will join in a general effort to bring about a settlement of the strike over the Ruhr reparations.

French Show Apprehension

By WEBB MILLER

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris, July 18—French official circles are displaying apprehension over the forthcoming British note to Germany, a draft of which is to be forwarded here. Only the most reserved comments are forthcoming.

A considerable portion of the press sees in the British move to reach agreement on reparations through other means than force in the Ruhr a scuttling of the Versailles treaty and an end to the entente.

The Journal Industrielle, which speaks for the industrialists and financiers of France charges Great Britain with seeking to create two interpretations of the Versailles treaty—one a British version bringing in other allies; another isolating France and depriving this country of support of the allies against Germany.

"Britain would nullify the treaty as regards France, but continue herself to benefit thereby," the paper says.

Premier Benes of Czecho-Slovakia, who has been busy himself with attempts at mediation, left today for Brussels, refusing to discuss success of his effort thus far.

Leave France Alone, His Idea

London, July 18—Premier Poincare of France has anticipated Premier Baldwin's proposed reparations note by a speech at Senlis in which he declares without reservations or evasions that France has come to the end of all concessions she is prepared to make. He is emphatic in his determination not to go back one inch from the Ruhr occupation policy and all it implies, and he sees no hope of settlement by other means. He lays stress in his belief of Britain's honesty of purpose and expresses grief at the thought that differences over this momentous question of reparations cast even a shadow on Anglo-French friendship, but in the end he is firm in his purpose.

VANGUARD COMES FOR RECEPTION

Republicans From All Parts Of State
Begin Arriving Today For "Welcome For Walb"

PROGRAM FOR WEDNESDAY

Dinner in Honor of Miss Dorothy
Cunningham, Of National Committee, To Be Given Tonight

Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—The vanguard of Republicans from various parts of Indiana began reaching here today for tomorrow's reception for Clyde A. Walb, the new chairman of the Republican state committee, and both men and women arrivals found preliminary programs. The number of early arrivals exceeded expectations, though small, because the set program for the "Welcome for Walb" does not get under way until 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Open house was kept at the headquarters of the Republican state committee, where the visitors were greeted by Mr. Walb, Lawrence Cartwright, vice-chairman of the state committee, and Frederick E. Schortemeier, secretary. Both women and men were headquarters visitors, and tonight a smoker will be held for the men.

A dinner in honor of Miss Dorothy Cunningham of Martinsville, Indiana's associate member of the Republican National Committee will be given tonight by Mr. Walb, with the thirteen women members of the state committee, and the four women members of the executive committee being the invited guests. A theatre party will follow.

Tomorrow's program for the "Welcome for Walb," an event sponsored by all party leaders, calls for Mr. Walb formally greeting all visitors beginning at 9:30 and with the renewal of republican friendship complete, a speaking program will follow with addresses by Postmaster General New, Senator Watson, Governor McCray, James P. Goodrich, Winfield T. Durbin, Lawrence Lyons, Mr. Walb, Joseph B. Kealing, Will Hays, Miss Cunningham, Miss Etella Rockenbach, vice-chairman of the state committee, and Mrs. Edna Herr Bucklin, also vice-chairman of the state committee. With the speaking completed, a luncheon will be served cafeteria style, and in the afternoon the state committee will meet in conference with the county chairmen, both men and women.

CAUSES HUSBANDS' ARREST, ASKS DIVORCE

Bessie M. Mazingo Charges Frank
Mozingo With Assault And Battery And Demands Separation

RELEASED ON $500 BOND

Frank Mazingo is made defendant in suits filed in the circuit court and Justice Stech's court, with Bessie M. Mazingo, his wife, as the plaintiff and prosecuting witness in the cases.

In the circuit court Mrs. Mazingo is asking for a divorce, support money and a restraining order. In Justice Stech's court she had her husband arrested on a surety of peace proceeding and for assault and battery, which is said to be the leading causes for the divorce.

In the divorce suit she alleges that they were married November 29, 1919 and separated July 17, 1923, and that she was accused falsely by her husband, that he failed to provide food or clothing and did not furnish her with a bed, making it necessary for her to sleep on the floor. He also struck and cursed her, according to the complaint.

She asks the court to restrain him from molesting her, and that she be allowed a reasonable allowance each week for her support.

In Justice Stech's court he is charged with having assaulted her, and threatened to do her harm. He was released on $500 bond and these two cases will be heard Thursday, with the surety of peace case set for trial first.

"JURY FIXERS" ACQUITTED

Cases Involving Trial Of Gov. Len
Small Of Illinois Collapse

Waukegan, Ills., July 18.—The "jury fixing" case involving the acquittal of Governor Len Small of charges of conspiracy to embezzle state funds collapsed today.

John B. Fields, Small trial juror, Edward Kaufman and Edward Courtney were acquitted late yesterday in circuit court of conspiracy to corrupt the Small jury. The jury which found the trio not guilty took only one ballot on each defendant.

Attorneys said it was probable there will be no further grand jury investigation of "fixing" charges. "The acquittal shows that innocent men cannot be convicted to further some one's political ambitions," Defense Attorneys William Scott and W. W. O'Brien said in a statement.

CAMP ROUTINE IS ESTABLISHED

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR MORE

Public Spirited Men Throughout
County Urged To Send Boys
From Their Communities

Thirty-three boys are entrenched at the Rush county boys camp west of Morristown today and camp routine was fully established, with every hour being taken up with some camp activity.

The second period of the camp will begin next Tuesday and a few other boys are expected to enter at that time. A few of those going to camp Tuesday will remain only seven days and others expected to attend during the second period and it is urged that boys from every town and community in the county consider taking an outing at the camp. In fact, there is room for more boys right now, preparations being made for more than the number attending, and boys who wish to enter before the beginning of the second period may do so at any time.

The only requirement made of a boy is that he go to the George C. Wyatt and company store, sign a pledge that he will obey the camp rules and obtain a list of the things that he will need at the camp.

Public spirited men throughout the county are asked to select boys from their respective communities and send them to the camp for a week or ten days outing. There are doubtless boys in the county who would like to attend the camp but do not have the money to pay the maintenance expense—$4.00 for each seven day period. Men having an interest in boys are urgently requested to seek these boys out and send them to camp. All they need to do after signing the pledge and obtaining their equipment, is to report at the camp. A way will be provided for any boys who have no means of reaching the camp.

It is believed that the camp will be a much more enjoyable one than last year's due to the more advantageous site. The swimming facilities are a great improvement over last year and the ground is much better adapted for the purpose. The water supply is also splendid.

It was found last night that there was not enough cots to supply all

Nude Body of Bride of Five Months
Found Murdered With Hammer

Pittsburg, Pa., July 18—A brutal hammer murder was discovered by police today with the finding of the nude body of Mrs. Julia Coyne, 18, a bride of five months in her honeymoon cottage at Point Perry, near Braddock.

Only a few hours before the badly battered body was found, the husband Patrick Coyne, a brakeman lost both legs in falling from a train of cars and is reported dying in the West Pennsylvania hospital.

The girl's body was found by her father, John Conroy, who searched for her throughout the night to inform her of the accident to her husband.

Unimpressed By Returns From Min-

Will Not Embark On Any Sudden
Farm Relief Movement—To Have
Cabinet Meeting On Alaska

(By United Press)

With President Harding, Seward, Alaska, July 18.—President Harding is unimpressed by the political menace seen in the Minnesota senatorial election, which he thinks resulted entirely from local conditions.

Warning of Senator Brookhart that something must be done for the farmers if the republican administration expects to win in 1924 has also left the president unmoved.

He will not embark on any sudden farm relief program. He is of the opinion that efforts to save the farmers or any other class, by artificial means, such as congressional legislation is as futile as for a man to attempt to lift himself by his own bootstraps.

Farmers and all other classes must work out their own salvation with whatever help the government can give in the normal regular way, the president feels.

If the farmer spokesmen, like Brookhart, will frame specific recommendations for helping the farmer, they will be given administration consideration, Harding will assure them, but he holds that congress has already gone about as far as it can in helping agriculture and time must now be given the new farm credits act to work before any additional farm legislation will be sponsored.

Should farmers ask railroad rate reductions for their products they will be told that their interests in that regard are bound up with the interests of the entire nation and that congress will be invited to deal with the matter in December.

The administration has a program for the coming year mapped out and does not intend to be stampeded into modifying it. This program is to be withheld until early in 1924 as ground work for some items to be laid in the coming session of congress.

Brookhart's demand for a special session, therefore, will go unheeded. Mr. Harding declined to discuss Henry Ford.

President Harding is going to have a cabinet meeting on Alaskan problems soon after boarding the transport Henderson for the return to the United States.

Radical Victory Of Magnus Johnson
In Minnesota Makes Third Party
Certainty, Belief

Victory of Magnus Johnson, farmer-laborite, in Minnesota's senatorial election, set a wagging political tongue on the subject of a possible "compromise" candidate between President Harding and the extreme "left wing" in the senate when 1924 republican nominations are considered.

In Washington, Frazier Edwards finds a group of "standpatters" talking of Hiram Johnson, now on the high seas homeward bound from a European trip as the nominee.

In New York, Paul R. Mallon has learned that progressives in the Republican ranks are rapidly agreeing upon Judge William S. Kenyon of Iowa as the man to succeed President Harding as Republican standard bearer.

Arthur Capper, United States senator from Kansas, in an article written for the United Press, sees in the election of Magnus Johnson, farmer-labor candidate for the senate in Minnesota, a protest against "deplorable" farm conditions.

Senator Capper also said it was a manifestation of two things which farmers are greatly disturbed over—high freight rates and excessive tariff duties on necessities of life.

By FRAZIER EDWARDS

Washington, July 18.—A brand new presidential boom for Hiram Johnson as the compromise candidate between Mr. Harding and Senator LaFollette was being built today upon the wreckage of the Republican defeat in Minnesota.

Johnson's friends are not the only ones behind the boom. Some stand-pat leaders were discussing seriously the availability of the California senator for the Republican nomination to head off a third party move by Senator LaFollette.

While there is no apparent basis for assumption that a third party is to be a certainty there is no doubt that Republican leaders are giving this possibility close and serious attention. Agricultural discontent would give the Wisconsin senator better than an even break in the west, it was conceded.

Taggart's Visit to Indianapolis
Viewed as Preliminary to Gubernatorial Announcement

HIS CHOICE FOR GOVERNOR

Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—Democratic campaign plans for Indiana were taking definite shape today with another visit of Thomas Taggart to Indianapolis.

One of the results of his present activities is expected to be the early announcement of the candidacy of Dr. Carleton B. McCullough for the nomination for governor.

McCullough will be the Taggart candidate, it is generally understood among the Democratic workers. If McCullough does not get the nomination it will be because Taggart has less influence on the party than he had in previous years.

Taggart is not talking politics for publication, but he is mighty active. There are still other gubernatorial booms, but they are "unofficial". Friends of William M. O'Brien of Lawrenceburg have been trying to get the Taggart O. K.

Dale Crittenden, Anderson editor and former auditor of state, also has a weather eye out for the drift of sentiment in the forthcoming race.

PLEADS FOR AID TO BE GIVEN BOYS

SPEAKS TO THE ROTARY CLUB

Rushville Man Says Foundation For
Better Home Life Be Laid
Through Boys Work

Richmond, Ind., July 18.—Laying the foundation for better home life through work among boys formed the theme of an address given to the Rotary club Tuesday by Will M. Sparks of Rushville, judge of the Rush circuit court. Judge Sparks drew upon his experience as a jurist which he brought forward in the course of his talk.

"In all my experiences as a judge I have never tried a divorce case, have never seen one on the docket and never heard of one where the man and woman both attended church regularly," he declared in emphasizing the belief that the church is one of the strongest influences for good home life.

"The great trouble with the children who come before our juvenile courts and charity boards seems to lie in their home life—a thing that we can remedy," he said.

A plea for a more intimate relationship between the business men and the boys of the city in which they live was embodied in the address. Expressing the belief that another man can often exert more influence on a boy's life than can his own father, the speaker urged the men of his audience to cultivate the boys of their neighborhoods, learn their nicknames and never pass by an opportunity to gain their confidence and friendship.

"There is something down in their little breasts that you can appeal to," he said. "In all my experience with boys, I have met only two who went back on their word."

Judge Sparks declared that wonderful results could be, and have been achieved by a more active interest in boys on the part of men, and that the boys, in turn, could come to a way in this way may be the means of changing his entire life.

In closing his address, Judge Sparks deplored what he sees as a tendency for over-developed "intellectualism" to endanger religious life.

HARDING STUDIES ALASKA RAILWAY

President Makes Trip Over Railroad
From Seward to Fairbanks, And
Sees Future Possibilities

BIG DEFICIT NOW EXISTS

Congress May be Asked to Give Aid
to Railroad That is Striving to
Help Develop Alaska

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

(Copyright 1923, by United Press)
Fairbanks, Alaska, July 18.—Having studied the Alaskan railroad over its entire length and having considered the possibilities of growth and development, President Harding is committed to maintenance of the road in the most economical fashion until a broader program is warranted.

He believes the present, and the immediate future promise nothing in the way of development of the vast stretches of country through which the line runs from Seward to Fairbanks.

Even development of the tourist possibilities of the southern portion depends on furnishing adequate water transportation which is, not only a problem in a way to make travel north bound attractive.

Mr. Harding probably will, ask congress to pay the deficit of the Alaskan railroad this year, but he urges here that the deficits be kept at the lowest possible figure. The deficit is estimated at about $1,500,000 this year.

Officials pointed out to him the large standardized last section line from Fairbanks to Tanana bridge has just been finished.

Mr. Harding upon his return may have to decide between Anchorage and Seward as the ocean terminal of the railroad. Seward is on Resurrection Bay and has a fine harbor. Anchorage is not as good, but shows great possibilities of development. The growth of Anchorage was made to order. It is a railroad town built by engineers who wanted to construct the railroad in two sections.

Seward was the terminal of the old Alaska Northern, Guggenheim and Morgan property, which was taken over as a speculative proposition and the government was induced to buy it when it decided to build the railroad.

Everyone now admits that the government was stung when it paid more than million dollars for the property as the whole line had to be scrapped and rebuilt and even the route changed in some places. That is one of the "scandals" about which the Alaskans talk in connection with the railroad.

Anchorage has been given government favors as officials want to make it a sea terminus. That means gradual decay by decay to Seward. Anchorage wants to be the capital seat of the territory, which is hotly resented by Juneau on the Southern coast. Juneau has no apparent reason to exist outside of being the capital. If that honor is removed Juneau probably will die.

President Harding, however, will oppose any effort to cripple the road as he feels time will justify the great experiment. Even though the country might be willing to pay something for pioneering into a new country that might some day be of great strategic value.

LAW TAKES JOY FROM PROMOTION

Securities Commission Shall Regulate Amount and Value of Securities of Promoter

FILED WITH SECRETARY

Promoter Must Have Money For Purchaser Before He Can Hope to Make Money Himself

By MAURICE L. MENDENHALL
(Member Indiana Securities Commission).

(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—The Indiana securities law takes the joy out of "promotion for promotion's sake" by providing that the securities commission shall regulate the amount and value of securities which the promoter will be permitted to take from the promotion of a company.

It regulates and limits the amount and the value of the securities which can be issued for patents, trade marks, leases, goodwill and other intangible assets.

Not only does the Securities law give the Indiana Securities Commission the power above stated but it provides further that all the securities which are authorized to be issued for intangible assets must be filed with the Secretary of the State until such time as all individuals who have paid for their securities in cash have received at least one six percent dividend out of the net earnings of the company.

In other words, under our present system, the promoter must make money for the purchaser of securities before he can hope to make money for himself.

In the old days the promoter issued to himself an unlimited amount of securities for promotion services or for other intangible assets and generally sold these securities to the unsuspecting public.

Very frequently, under this system the purchaser awoke to the fact that he had purchased securities belonging to the promoter, that the promoter had received all the money, and that he held stock in a corporation which had not a single dollar in the treasury.

The old system encouraged graft, deception and fraud. The new system encourages honest promotion and development, provides an incentive for hard work and square dealing and makes the promotion of a new enterprise unattractive to persons who are dishonest.

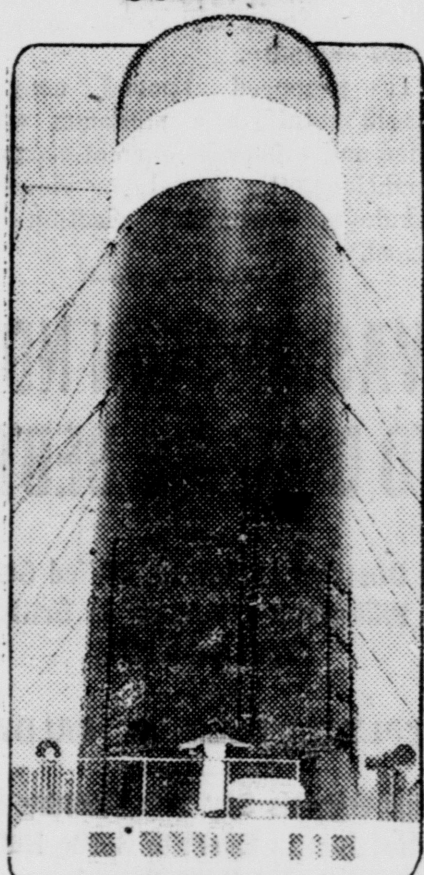

In thirty-one months of operation, the Indiana Securities Commission has authorized the issuance of $9,435,782 worth of securities. In addition, it has authorized the issuance of 55,500 shares of no par-value stock for promotion purposes. All of this stock is being held in the vaults of the Securities Commission until each purchaser of securities for cash has received one six percent dividend out of the earnings of the company.

ONION CROP DAMAGED

Brimfield, Ind., July 18—From one-third to one-half of the prospective onion crop of Noble county has been destroyed during the last few weeks by wire worms and cut worms which have literally descended upon the fields by the millions. Onion fields of this section are all in the lowlands, where wire worms do the most damage. The loss to growers will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Woman Thinks She Can't Talk Enough

"I had gall stones for 14 years and suffered severely from gas colic, and indigestion. Doctors wanted me to go to the hospital, but I took Mayr's Wonderful Remedy instead, and am now feeling fine and better than I ever did. I can't talk enough about this remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Mystery Picture At Mystic

One of the most fascinating mystery stories ever put into motion pictures is presented in "The Blue Mountain Mystery," which will be the feature attraction at the Mystic today only. Here is the situation—you can try your own solution:

Henry Tracey, a millionaire, is found murdered in his room in a big hotel, during the height of a thunder-storm, while a brilliant ball is taking place on the floor below. In the same corridor with Tracey are the rooms of Mrs. Tracey, a second wife, married while his daughter Pauline was away on a three-year tour; of the daughter, and of Hector Blunt, a rejected suitor of Pauline.

Pauline and her father have been heard quarreling earlier in the evening. Later, when the shot is heard, Blunt says he saw Pauline walking as if in a daze, from the direction of her father's room, a smoking revolver in her limp hand. The weapon disappears, but is later dug up in the fireplace in Blunt's room. Mrs. Tracey says that she was in the ballroom and heard nothing.

Who killed Henry Tracey, and why? It is a thrilling story, and there is a startling twist to it that will amaze and fascinate.

Bebe Daniels At Princess

The Paramount picture, "The Exciters," co-starring Bebe Daniels and Antonio Moreno, will be seen today and Thursday at the Princess.

The story is a mile-a-minute tale of a mile-a-minute girl, for Ronnie Rand, portrayed by Miss Daniels, was born on an express train traveling sixty miles an hour. This dismayed her Aunt Veronica, who predicted that Ronnie would be marked as sure as fate. But she wasn't and she wasn't even scratched in her many daring escapades. Speed is her mania.

In order that Aunt Veronica's money should remain in the Rand family, Ronnie is required to marry before reaching the age of twenty-one. One day, she is injured in an airplane crash and she meets Pierre Martel, played by Antonio Moreno. He carries the injured girl to safety and wins her heart. But lo! He is a crook. Not until after the wedding ceremony does the girl discover this, and then—divorce? Pierre, acting by order of his confederates, demands a huge sum for the annulment of the marriage, but it only chided by Ronnie. Would he sell his wife? Then comes a smashing climax.

In the supporting cast are Barr McIntosh, Diana Allen, Cyril Ring, Bigelow Cooper, Ida Darling, Jane Thomas, Allan Simpson, George Beckus and others. The story, adapted by John Colton and Sonya Levien, was directed by Maurice Campbell.

SUSPECTED AS MURDERER

Chicago Tailor Sought As Slayer Of Cologero Salerno, Contractor

Chicago, July, 18.—Ambresto Gilberto, a tailor, alleged to have eloped recently with the victim's wife, was hunted by police today as the slayer of Cologero Salerno, a contractor.

Frank, 13, the slain man's son, said Gilberto was taken into his father's home when he was penniless and begging for a place to sleep. Shortly afterwards Gilberto and Mrs. Salerno disappeared.

Salerno was shot down on a crowded street. The assailant leaped into a car driven by Charles Goetz, ordering him to "drive like hell." When the auto was stalled by traffic, Goetz was shot and probably fatally wounded.

Mrs. Salerno was taken into custody at the "love nest" where police say she and Gilberto lived but refused to talk.

Telltale Symptoms of Woman's Ills

Every woman who suffers from backache, headaches, dragging-down pains, nervousness, irregularities, displacements, irritability, or dependency should recognize in such symptoms some derangement of her system which should have attention before some more serious ailment develops. These conditions are often evidenced by a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude and sleeplessness. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been pre-eminently successful in overcoming such conditions, and it is now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

A Local Disturbance

The election of Magnus Johnson as United States senator from Minnesota is little more than a local political disturbance; it can scarcely be regarded as anything else, because most any sort of a political upheaval may be expected from a state that elected Senator Shipstead, and that feeds on the propaganda from neighboring states that elect the LaFolletes and the Brookharts.

The republicans in Minnesota are explaining the defeat of the organization candidate by asserting that it was the candidate and not the party that met defeat. Whatever the causes were that operated to place in the United States a man whose chief claim to greatness lies in his foghorn voice, it is not any signal that the country is headed toward perdition, politically, or that the conditions which brought about the election of Johnson exist elsewhere in the United States.

The victory of the farmer-labor candidate has caused others of his ilk to grow bold and imagine that the people of Minnesota have expressed the views of the United States. Senator Brookhart is just back from Russia with the assertion that the soviet regime is the most stable government in the world.

BASEBALL ABOUT TO HIT THE ROCKS

Rushville Club Will Probably Follow
Example of Other Cities Nearby
and Quit For Season

POOR CROWDS, BIG EXPENSE

Greensburg Baseball Team Disband-
ed and Other Clubs are Reported
Operating at a Loss

Semi-professional baseball in eastern Indiana is about to pass out for this season, according to all indications from surrounding towns and cities, in which financial troubles are facing the managements. Included in the list is the Rushville ball club, which in all indications is about to quit.

The game scheduled for Sunday at Cambridge City was called off last night when the manager of the Cambridge City team notified the local management that the town was not supporting a ball club, and they were thinking of quitting.

When Rushville played at Richmond last Sunday, in a city of 25,000 people, there were less than 400 people at the game. The same thing was true at Greensburg, and the Eagles also quit last Sunday and have rented their park to another team.

Columbus is reported to be showing a financial loss. Seymour is said to be the only team in this vicinity that is holding the crowds, which is due largely to the fact that the city has a first rate club.

Connersville is not drawing large crowds this season, but their expenses are not as great as most teams, because their ball players are from their own city, and do not demand as much money as a hired team.

Ball players this year have aided a great deal in the downfall of the game, because they have asked too much money for their services. The Rushville team, which lacked a great deal of being a wonderful club, was costing more than a $100 a game to be placed in the field, and $100 should put a fast team in the field. Pitchers hold out for $35 and $50 and are not worth that much, because if they were worth the price, they would be playing professional ball, and not in the amateur class.

While Richmond, Cambridge City, Rushville, Connersville and Greensburg are closing up shop for the season, along comes Newcastle with the plan on foot to organize a team, and put it in the field on August 5.

Newcastle has been without a representative team for several years, and some of the fans in that city believe the time is ripe to reorganize. The outcome of finances of this club will be watched by some of the nearby cities.

Although the high salaried ball players have been greatly responsible for the downfall, yet it is generally conceded that automobiles have done much to keep away the crowds. Sunday motoring parties take hundreds of ball fans from a city, and interest this year seems to be lacking among the sports.

Just what action will be taken in regard to the Rushville club will be made known in a day or so, but so far this week four games have been cancelled by neighboring cities, who say they are throwing up the sponge for the season, and it is indicated that the local managers will follow their action.

Yanks Do Well

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 18—America has carried off the honors in early season international sport competition.

Yankee athletes, who sailed to Europe this spring and summer to meet the best of the old continent in competition, have returned with unprecedented laurels.

The American Walker cup team started things off when, with a brilliant spurt the U. S. golfers came from behind and downed the Britishers. It was a victory for Yankee coolness and courage.

Then Charlie Paddock went to France, despite the protestations of the A. A. U. and smashed a few sprint records for French spectators.

The American girl swimming champions also went over, but they heeded the demands of the A. A. U. and did not compete.

William M. Johnston borrowed a tennis racket and cleaned up the hard courts at St. Cloud, France, defeating all comers for the championship of the world.

American golf professionals went to Troon and, although they lost first place to the brilliant Britisher Arthur Havers, they took the next three places and played the best collection of the war department," he said.

NO DEMPSEY-GIBBONS FIGHT IN THIS STATE

Indianapolis, July 18—There will be no Dempsey-Gibbons fight in Indiana on Labor day, or any other day, for that matter, as long as Governor McCray has the say.

The Governor refused to give his permission for the bout which is being sought by a group of local promoters headed by J. L. Baugh, of the Union Wire and Steel Co.

The promoters declare they have pledges for the necessary funds and that they are in touch with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, for the bout.

Following Governor McCray's stand against the fight, the promoters appealed to the war department at Washington for permission to hold the fight on the military reservation at Fort Harrison, which, they believe, is outside the jurisdiction of the governor of Indiana.

Governor McCray, however, will call on the attorney general for an opinion in the event the promoters gain permission from the war department to have the fight on the military reservation.

Col. Allen Parker, commandant at Fort Harrison, refused to become mixed in the squabble. "It's entirely tive golf of the tournament. In prize matches they carried the honors and won most of the money.

Then, for the climax Johnston and Francis T. Hunter decided to stage an all-American finals in the All-England tennis tournament. They beat down the British men in the singles and won first and second place for America.

Only Vincent Richards, the youthful Yonkers star, fell below the mark that had been hopefully set for him, but the performance of Johnston and Hunter more than made up for this.

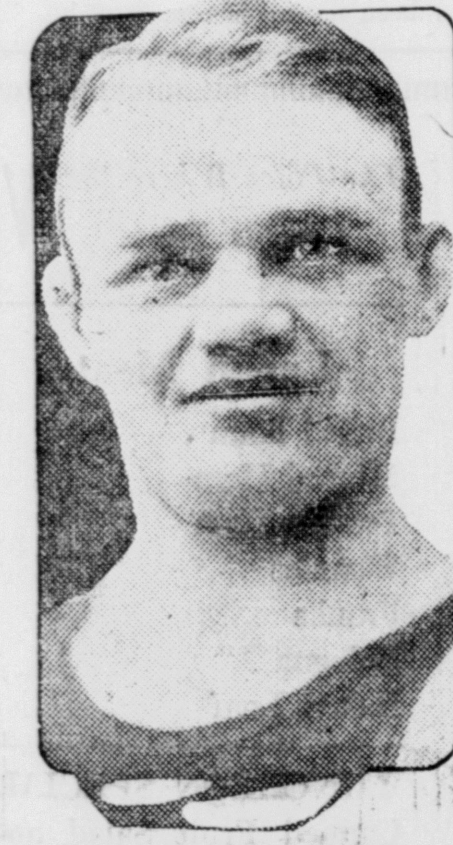

The matches at Wimbledon proved what already had been known—that the United States probably has the best three tennis players in the world. The three can be selected from William T. Tilden, the champion; Bill Johnston, Francis Hunter and Vincent Richards.

With this array of stars there seems to be no doubt about who is going to retain the Davis Cup.

But it also was shown that America is woefully weak in the doubles, mixed doubles and women's singles. This is a situation that should be remedied, if someone could induce the stars to bend their efforts toward team play.

It is not enough that America should have the best players. She should have the best teams.

The Score Board

Homers by Snyder and Groh produced four runs and gave the Giants a 7 to 3 victory over the Cubs.

Adolfo Luque, star pitcher of the season, hurled the Reds to a double victory over the Braves at 4 to 3 and 9 to 5. He went six innings of the first game and the entire distance in the second.

Hauser's homer was the only tally counted off Cveugros and the Athletics lost to the White Sox 1 to 8. George Uhle let the Yanks down with four feeble hits and the Indians won 13 to 0. Babe Ruth and Bengough were the only Yanks to get as far as second.

Four singles, a double and a triple accounted for six runs in the fourth inning and the Robins won from the Pirates 6 to 2.

Fred Toney bettered Jimmy Ring in a pitcher's battle, and the Cards beat the Phils 2 to 1 in ten innings.

Steady pitching by Johnson enabled the Tigers to beat the Senators 4 to 2.

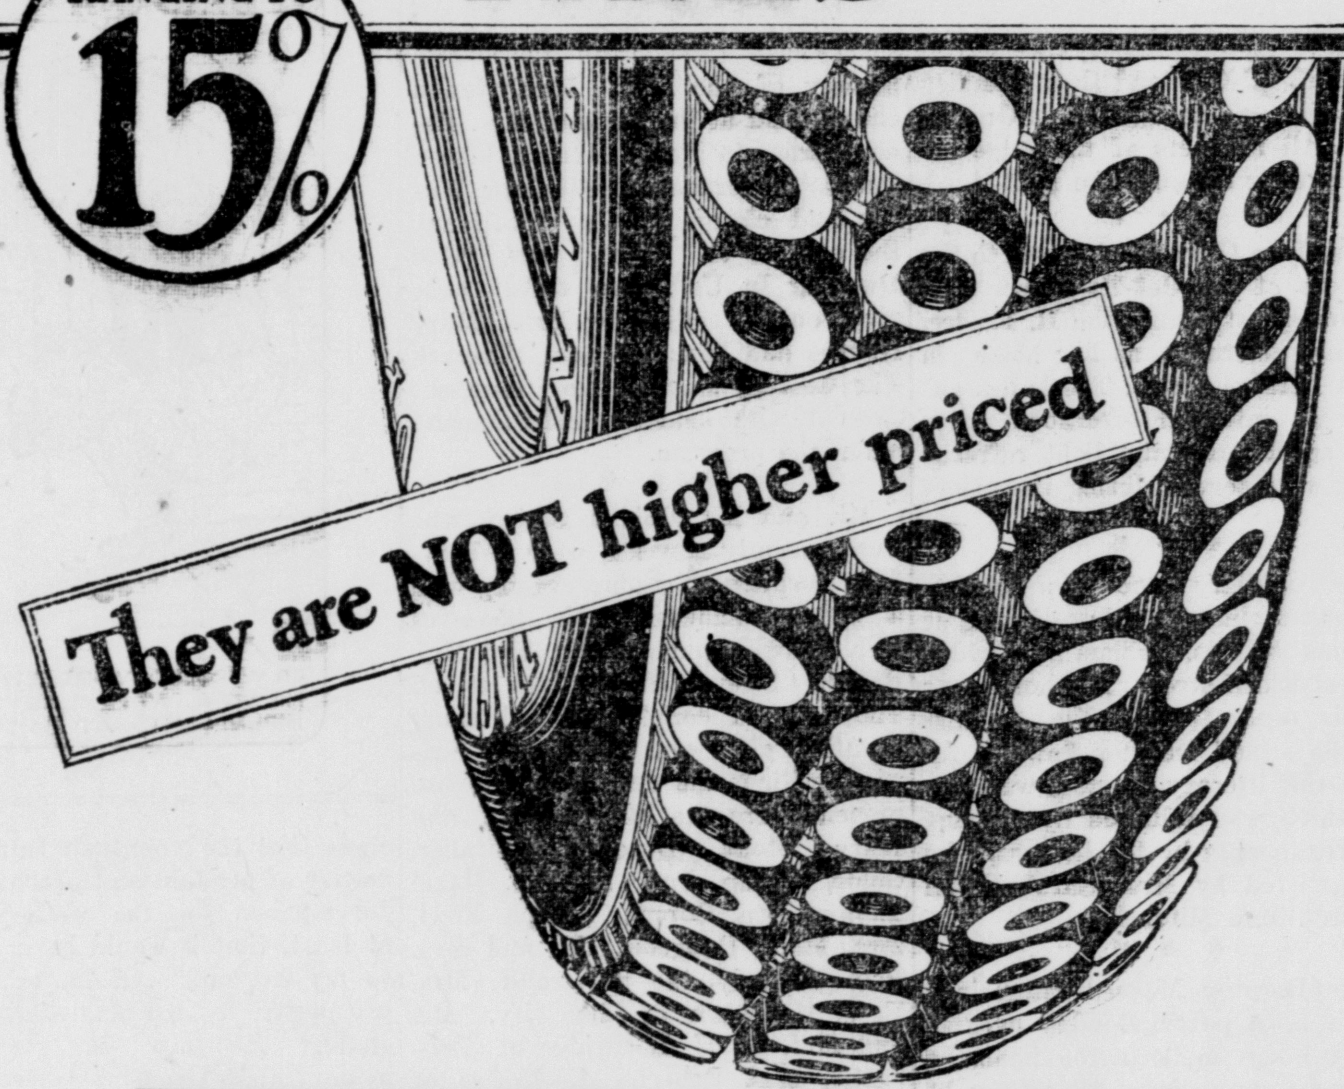

Dave Danforth pitched great ball, and the Browns made it five straight over the Red Sox with a 10 to 1 win.

Yesterday's Home Run Hitters

Hauser, Athletics 1—11.
Brower, Indians, 1—9.
Snyder, Giants, 1—5.
Durst, Browns 1—5.

FIGHT BEFORE END OF YEAR SETTLED

Positively Determined Dempsey Will Meet Firpo, But Beyond That Nothing is Definite

LABOR DAY IS PREFERRED

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 18—Another promise of something today or tomorrow about the Dempsey-Firpo heavyweight championship match was made today by Tex Rickard.

"There are just a few details to get straightened out before I can make a definite announcement of when and where the match is to be held," Rickard said.

Rickard was willing to say positively that the South American would meet Dempsey for the title before the end of the year, either in the United States or South America.

"I have Firpo under contract to meet Dempsey this year and if I am unable to make the match, I am no promoter," Rickard said.

Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, takes the stand that he does not care where the fight is to be held. He is more interested in the date, as he wants to send Dempsey against Firpo and Wills before the end of the year.

Kearns prefers Labor day for the Firpo match and he wants the Wills bout in or near New York around world's series time. Getting a world's heavyweight championship near the time of the baseball classic may cause the major magnates to froth some more and they have been frothing plenty all summer because so many fine boxing cards have been placed in competition with the "grand old national pastime."

SPORT CHATTER

Baltimore—Reports that could not be confirmed were circulated here that Joe Boley, star short stop of the Baltimore Orioles has been sold to the New York Yankees for delivery at the end of the season. The club refused a major league offer of $125,000 for Boley early in the season.

London—Strained muscles sustained in training may prevent Quintins and Rusnako, star Yale sprinters from competing for the Yale-Harvard team when it meets the Oxford-Cambridge team here Saturday.

New York—Clarence "Peck" Griffin of California, former national doubles champion, has joined the list of stars who will compete for the coming national tennis classics. Griffin is to play with William M. Johnston in the doubles.

St. Louis—The winning spurt of the St. Louis Browns has restored confidence in the team here, and rumors that Lee Fohl was to be deposed as manager of the team, heard some time ago, have been forgotten.

New York—Johnny Buff, former flyweight and bantamweight champion, reached the end of his string last night when he was stopped in the ninth round by Harry Cateno, New York flyweight.

Trenton, N. J.—In a report to the state boxing commission, the federal revenue department gave the actual attendance at the Firpo-Willard fight as 79,526 and the total receipts as $390,837. There were 75,712 paid admissions, 2,786 complimentary and 1,028 press tickets, according to the report.

The K. of C.'s and their families will hold a picnic Sunday at Green's Camp. All members of the lodge including their families are invited.

Mrs. John Gray was hostess to the members of the Get-To-Gether club and one guest, Mrs. John H. Frazier, Tuesday afternoon at her home in North Perkins street. The ladies enjoyed an informal afternoon over their needlework and light refreshments were served during the afternoon.

The Auxiliary Club was delightfully entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Bainbridge in East Third street. The home was prettily decorated for the meeting with flags and summer flowers. An interesting literary program was given, which was followed by serving of refreshments by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Sarah Guffin and Mrs. Mae Mitchell.

Miss Dorothy Meyers entertained with a lawn party Monday evening at her home in Arlington honoring her house guest, Miss Alice Crim of Dayton, Ohio. The guests were Dorothy Schaffer, Frances Boren, Clara Martz, Ruth Miller, Leona Wright, Meryl Meyers, Clarence Schaffer, Robert Meyers, Lowell Clifford, Eugene Moore, Clall Meyers, Hugh Miller, Robert Clark and Edwin Newhouse.

Mrs. Errol Stoops, assisted by Mrs. Gibson Ross and Mrs. Russell Barringer, entertained the members of the Loyal Daughters class of the Main Street Christian Sunday school Tuesday evening at her home in North Perkins street. A business meeting was held, and many important matters were discussed at this meeting. A short program was given, including musical selections and a Bible reading by Mrs. John Nipp. Delicious refreshments were served as the close of the evening by the hostess and her assistant.

"Buddhism In Our Own Country" was the subject discussed at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary

FELT TIRED, SO TIRED

Indiana Lady Says She Was Run-Down, Suffered With Her Back, Took Cardui, and Got Well.

Richmond, Ind.—"I thought I would write a line or so, to say that I owe my good health and strength to Cardui," says a letter from Mrs. Cora Courtney, 31 Railroad Street, this city.

"I was all run-down until my family thought they would lose me," writes Mrs. Courtney. "My husband coaxed me to take Cardui, so, to please him, I did, and will say I do not regret it, for I am able to do all my work and do my shopping."

"I have five children, four in school, my husband and a boarder to do for, and I do all my own work for all of us, and find time to play. We all praise Cardui. Every sick and run-down woman should take this wonderful medicine."

"I suffered with my back; a very weak feeling in my limbs."

"I felt hardly able to drag; just tired—so tired all the time."

"It was an effort for me to do anything, but Cardui helped me so I felt like a different woman."

If you are in a run-down physical condition, suffering as this Indiana lady says she did, give Cardui a fair trial. It should help you.

Take Cardui.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

clude that the country's future is a matter of gradual and probably slow development for the coming decade at least, that it would be a mistake to try to "bull" Alaska or give it prosperity by artificial means, including the use of government money; that the people here should be allowed to work out their own destinies without too much interference from Washington; and that Alaska should be given a directing voice in Washington in the bureau dealing with Alaskan affairs.

President Harding today received an unofficial invitation from the governor of Honolulu to visit there on the Henderson before returning to Seattle. The invitation probably will be declined.

ORDINANCE UP TO LICENSE BUSES

Congestion for about 100 feet off Main street on Saturday nights. The petition stated that on account of the congestion, people were unable to reach stores, and some of the business suffered.

The petition was aimed directly at the Salvation Army and other religious meetings held on the corner, because it is said they block the sidewalk and streets at the busiest corner in the city. The petition was granted and a committee appointed by the mayor to notify the Salvation army captain to change his location to the court house lawn, and the police will be notified to prevent other services from being held at the Second and Main street corner. Complaint of men and boys riding bicycles on sidewalks has reached the mayor and police, and several accidents have resulted recently. The police have been notified to bring all boys and men in court for violating the ordinance, and a second offense will mean a fine.

The contract for the purchase of the Memorial park was signed and approved, and an ordinance drawn up in which the city will request a $24,000 bond issue to make the purchase and necessary improvements.

The bond issue will extend over a period of 12 years, payable $2,000 a year and interest. The bonds will bear 5 percent, and will be in denominations of $500 each. The first bond will fall due sixteen months from September first.

The garbage contract which will expire with Rex Innis July 24, has been given to Joe Caldwell. The bids were received at the last meeting, and taken under consideration until last night, when his low bid of $699 was approved. His bid is almost one-half of what the contract has been for the past two years.

The bids and contracts for the work of remodeling the city water and light plant were taken up, and in most cases the bonds were approved, and the various contracts signed.

WASHINGTON NOT TO DISCUSS DEBTS

High hopes were entertained that the Baldwin government would in some way or another not definite put an end to the deadlock of the Ruhr and reparations situations. Such hopes never had any foundation in fact and never can have as long as the French people support Poincare's policy.

For this ferment of expectation the government itself is largely responsible by suggesting that Baldwin might succeed in bringing France around where Bonar Law failed, whereas in reality, as the Daily Express pointed out at the time, his only contribution to this subject was a "new brand of optimism."

Having set this note for themselves, the ministers must not blame the country if it exhibits some disappointment now that Poincare's speech has ended the high hopes of the nation.

CAMP ROUTINE IS ESTABLISHED

Continued from Page One the boys and the camp equipment committee went to Indianapolis this morning to purchase several army cots, which were to be delivered to the camp this afternoon. There was also a shortage of mess kits, due to the fact that several of the boys in camp this year did not attend last year. All boys in 1922 camp were given their mess kits.

STRAW CATCHES FIRE

Burning straw in the Pennsylvania railroad stock yards caused the fire department to make a run at 11:40 this morning to the vicinity of Second and Washington streets, but no damage resulted from the blaze.

COMPROMISE IS BEING DISCUSSED

Continued from Page One conferred and decided to back William S. Kenyon of Iowa, former senator of now federal judge, for presidency of the United States in the 1924 election.

An effort will be made, it is predicted, to put Kenyon before the Republican convention as an opposition candidate to President Harding.

If he fails of nomination, an independent movement probably will be started.

Kenyon was selected, the United Press ascertained today as a compromise choice between the varying progressives. It is believed, he, more than any other man can attempt to join the dissatisfied Republican elements, the near-progressives and the ultra-progressives.

Those who are backing the movement say Kenyon would have the farmer vote, the soldier vote and the labor vote. He could come nearer than anyone to joining the Borah group, the Johnson group, the La-follette group, the Norris group and all those other various groups which—while they sympathize in most principles—vary widely in others.

By SENATOR ARTHUR CAPPER

Topeka, Kans., July 18—The Minnesota election is a plain case of protest against deplorable conditions prevailing throughout agricultural west. The farmer today is compelled to take less than cost of production for wheat and other farm commodities while nearly everything he buys is still sold at near war prices.

Agricultural relief organization by the last congress did not consist of instantaneous panacea but of constructive measures in which farmers themselves must co-operate to realize on them. The efforts have not had time to be tried out and to produce results. In the meantime Minnesota electors by their votes have given notice that profiteering must stop; that the perfectly evident economic wrongs of which they are still victims must be righted immediately and that the farmer's dollar must be worth as much as that of anyone else in its purchasing power.

Two factors that I believe had great influence in the Minnesota election, and that farmers throughout the west are greatly disturbed over, are high freight rates and excessive tariff duties on necessities of life.

The Minnesota vote is notice of the farmers' demand for freight charges that farm prices can pay. These rates today are higher than the traffic will bear. It is also a plain demand for further reduction in tariff duties. The tariff commission and the president must give relief under the authority conferred by the Fordney-McCumber act or the next congress will promptly revise the tariff downward in a way that will make drastic reductions.

BACK FROM A LONG JOURNEY

American Legion Commander Visited In Forty-Five States

Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion is back at Legion headquarters here today after a tour which carried him into forty-five states.

Owsley reports that the public is heartily in favor of the program laid down by the Legion for adequate national preparedness and conscription of wealth as well as men in time of war.

Although the Legion is not in politics, many Legionnaires are holding prominent offices, Owsley said. He will leave Sunday to attend state Legion conventions in Utah and Nevada.

"Boy Hero" of the Civil War Is Dead at Brazil, Ind.

Brazil, Ind., July 18—Funeral services for John Sharp, 78, known as "the boy hero" of the Civil war because of his record during the conflict between the states, were held here today.

Sharp, a native of Scotland, enlisted as a fifer in the union army at the age of 16 years. He was a favorite with his regiment and one of the members wrote a poem in commemoration of the boy hero.

A French Beauty

Taught me how to clean my skin

By Edna Wallace Hopper

My youthful beauty at my grand old age is due to French creations. And I served France for 52 months in the War to help repay that debt.

Now I am doing more. I am sharing those helps with others. I am supplying them at modest prices to dealers everywhere. And I am taking time in a busy life to tell the facts about them.

After 32 years as a stage star I still play young girls' parts. I look a girl, as thousands of you know. I looked no younger 40 years ago. Now you are welcome to the same helps I employ.

A liquid cleanser

One great help is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth, Lucie Lantelme, the famous Parisian beauty, gave me the formula many years ago. Now the World's greatest beauty experts are advising and employing it. But their price is too high for most women.

Facial Youth contains no animal, no vegetable oil. So it cannot grow hair on the face. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin. But it penetrates the skin to the depths. When I wipe it off, all that clogs the skin comes with it. It is absolutely clean.

Facial Youth also carries factors to whiten and firm the skin. There is lemon in it. I see new bloom and beauty every time I use it.

You'll be surprised

Clean your face in your way, then in mine. You will be amazed at the extra dirt which Facial Youth removes. Much of a cleansing cream always remains. Facial Youth all departs.

I anoint my whole body with Facial Youth before I take a bath. And I get out clogging matter which water cannot reach.

Utter cleanliness is beauty's first essential. Facial Youth is now recognized, all the world over, as the best way to attain it. Once you use it you will never return to the greasy cleansing creams. We stage women use it for removing all our make-ups now.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is now supplied by all druggists, all toilet goods dealers Price 75c per bottle, and it goes far. They also supply my Youth Cream—my fruity cold cream should follow. Also my White Youth Clay. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

Try this new-day cleanser—my Facial Youth. If the first bottle fails to delight you, your dealer will return your money.

REFERRED TO A COMMITTEE

City Council Approves Morgan
Street Paving and Passes Ordinance for Park Band Issue

Considerable business came before the city council Tuesday night, when they met in regular session, and foremost among the matters of importance was the introduction of an ordinance regulating and licensing motor busses, approval of a petition to pave Morgan street, allowing the garbage contract and the passage of an ordinance for a bond issue to purchase and improve Memorial park.

The ordinance introduced for the regulation, licensing and making it necessary for the bus transportation companies to provide liability insurance, was read, and was referred to the ordinance committee to investigate and report the next meeting night.

The proposed ordinance defines what streets cannot be used by the large motor busses, excluding the use of Main from First to Sixth, Perkins south of Sixth, Third from Buena Vista Avenue to Perkins Second from the avenue to Main. The license fee for such busses is based on a seating capacity, with the following rates, 7 passengers or less $75; more than 7, and not exceeding 12, $100; 12 to 18, $125; 18 to 24, $150; more than 24, $200. The fees to be collected and paid annually.

There was no discussion on the ordinance at the meeting, and the matter will be taken up for further consideration at the next session.

The petition of property owners in Morgan street, asking that the street be paved from Third to Seventh, was granted, after having been investigated since the last meeting, and in granting the petition, it was amended to include several additional blocks, extending from the extreme south end of Morgan street, at Water street, to Seventh.

The engineer was ordered to make the necessary survey and report at the next meeting night, and work will probably be started this fall on the street, if the demonstrators don't kill the movement.

ONE FIELD OF WHEAT AVERAGES 27 BUSHELS

Ten Acres Yield High On Gowdy
Farm And Rest Of Crop Will
Not Be Far Behind

BEST REPORTED IN COUNTY

The best yield of wheat in Rush county reported this season was made on one of the Gowdy farms west of Rushville, a ten-acre field threshed Tuesday evening averaging twenty-seven bushels to the acre. It is the farm tenanted by George Deerin.

There are fifty acres of wheat on the farm where Deerin lives and it is expected that it will come very close to equalling the record made by the ten acre field although the latter was regarded as the best field on the place. A field of twenty-five acres was being threshed today and it was confidently expected that the average would be between twenty and twenty-five bushels to the acre.

The wheat is of exceptionally good quality. Part of the ten acre field is being stored for seed wheat and the remainder is being sold at Arlington.

A total of 180 acres on the Gowdy farms, all lying just east of Arlington, will be harvested this year, and all of the fields look good, giving rise to the belief that the average for the whole crop will be high.

Threshing was general throughout Rush county, but no yields were reported which equaled that on the Gowdy farm.

HE AGREES WITH BROOKHART

Senator-Elect Johnson Believes Special Session Should Be Held

St. Paul, Minn., July 18—Senator-elect Magnus Johnson, Minnesota today joined Senator Brookhart of Iowa in demanding that a special session of congress be called "to save the wheat farmer from ruin by low prices."

Johnson also announced that he is considering calling a conference of senators and congressmen from wheat states to discuss the situation which he fears will result in a national calamity.

The proposed special congress should establish a minimum wheat price and otherwise correct economic conditions, the farm-labor victor in Monday's senatorial election declared.

REPLY TO PREMIER BALDWIN

High Officials Say This Country Will
Not Join in Effort to Settle Ruhr
Reparations Dispute

(By United Press)
Washington, July 18—The United States government will refuse to participate in the British plan for settlement of the Ruhr and reparations crisis, if it involves the question of allied debts to this country, it was indicated in high official quarters here today.

Premier Baldwin of Great Britain in his speech in parliament last week referred to the interrelated debts, stating that a settlement of this question is one of the essentials to dispelling the cloud now hanging over Europe.

Both high officials and diplomatic quarters here replied to this subject. Baldwin has made a mistake if he hopes that the United States will join in a general effort to bring about a settlement of the strike over the Ruhr reparations.

French Show Apprehension
By WEBB MILLER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Paris, July 18—French official circles are displaying apprehension over the forthcoming British note to Germany, a draft of which is to be forwarded here. Only the most reserved comments are forthcoming.

A considerable portion of the press sees in the British move to reach agreement on reparations through other means than force in the Ruhr a scrapping of the Versailles treaty and an end to the entente.

The Journal Industrielle, which speaks for the industrialists and financiers of France charges Great Britain with seeking to create two interpretations of the Versailles treaty—one a British version bringing in other allies; another isolating France and depriving this country of support of the allies against Germany.

"Britain would nullify the treaty as regards France, but continue herself to benefit thereby," the paper says.

Premier Benes of Czechoslovakia, who has been busy himself with attempts at mediation, left today for Bussels, refusing to discuss success of his effort thus far.

Leave France Alone, His Idea
By LORD BEAVERBROOK

(Copyright 1923 in Canada)

London, July 18—Premier Poincare of France has anticipated Premier Baldwin's proposed reparations note by a speech at Senlis in which he declares without reservations or evasions that France has come to the end of all concessions she is prepared to make. He is emphatic in his determination not to go back one inch from the Ruhr occupation policy and all it implies, and he sees no hope of settlement by other means. He lays stress in his belief of Britain's honesty of purpose and expresses grief at the thought that differences over this momentous question of reparations cast even a shadow on Anglo-French friendship, but in the end he is firm in his purpose.

VANGUARD COMES FOR RECEPTION

Republicans From All Parts Of State
Begin Arriving Today For "Welcome For Walb"

PROGRAM FOR WEDNESDAY

Dinner in Honor of Miss Dorothy
Cunningham, Of National Committee, To Be Given Tonight

Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—The vanguard of Republicans from various parts of Indiana began reaching here today for tomorrow's reception for Clyde A. Walb, the new chairman of the Republican state committee, and both men and women arrivals found preliminary programs. The number of early arrivals exceeded expectations, though small, because the set program for the "Welcome for Walb" does not get under way until 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Open house was kept at the headquarters of the Republican state committee, where the visitors were greeted by Mr. Walb, Lawrence Cartwright, vice-chairman of the state committee, and Frederick E. Schortemeier, secretary. Both women and men were headquarters visitors, and tonight a smoker will be held for the men.

A dinner in honor of Miss Dorothy Cunningham of Martinsville, Indiana's associate member of the Republican National Committee will be given tonight by Mr. Walb, with the thirteen women members of the state committee, and the four women members of the executive committee being the invited guests. A theatre party will follow.

Tomorrow's program for the "Welcome for Walb" an event sponsored by all party leaders, calls for Mr. Walb formally greeting all visitors beginning at 9:30 and with the renewal of republican friendship complete, a speaking program will follow with addresses by Postmaster General New, Senator Watson, Governor McCray, James P. Goodrich, Winfield T. Durbin, Lawrence Lyons, Mr. Walb, Joseph B. Keating, Will Hays, Miss Cunningham, Miss Etella Roebenbach, vice-chairman of the state committee, and Mrs. Edna Herr Bucklin, also vice-chairman of the state committee. With the speaking completed, a luncheon will be served cafeteria style, and in the afternoon the state committee will meet in conference with the county chairmen, both men and women.

CAUSES HUSBANDS' ARREST, ASKS DIVORCE

Bessie M. Mozingo Charges Frank
Mozingo With Assault And Battery And Demands Separation

RELEASED ON $500 BOND

Frank Mozingo is made defendant in suits filed in the circuit court and Justice Stech's court, with Bessie M. Mozingo, his wife, as the plaintiff and prosecuting witness in the cases.

In the circuit court Mrs. Mozingo is asking for a divorce, support money and a restraining order. In Justice Stech's court she had her husband arrested on a surety of peace proceeding and for assault and battery, which is said to be the leading causes for the divorce.

In the divorce suit she alleges that they were married November 29, 1919 and separated July 17, 1923, and that she was accused falsely by her husband, that he failed to provide food or clothing and did not furnish her with a bed, making it necessary for her to sleep on the floor. He also struck and cursed her, according to the complaint.

She asks the court to restrain him from molesting her, and that she be allowed a reasonable allowance each week for her support.

In Justice Stech's court he is charged with having assaulted her, and threatened to do her harm. He was released on $500 bond and these two cases will be heard Thursday, with the surety of peace case set for trial first.

"JURY FIXERS" ACQUITTED

Cases Involving Trial Of Gov. Len
Small Of Illinois Collapsed

Waukegan, Ills., July 18.—The "jury fixing" case involving the acquittal of Governor Len Small of charges of conspiracy to embezzle state funds collapsed today.

John B. Fields, Small trial juror, Edward Kaufman and Edward Courtney were acquitted late yesterday in circuit court of conspiracy to corrupt the Small jury. The jury which found the trio not guilty took only one ballot on each defendant.

Attorneys said it was probable there will be no further grand jury investigation of "fixing" charges.

"The acquittal shows that innocent men cannot be convicted to further some one's political ambitions," Defense Attorneys William Scott and W. W. O'Brien said in a statement.

CAMP ROUTINE IS ESTABLISHED

Thirty-three Boys Entrenched For Outing And Others Will Be Welcomed At Any Time

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR MORE

Public Spirited Men Throughout
County Urged To Send Boys
From Their Communities

Thirty-three boys are entrenched at the Rush county boys camp west of Morristown today and camp routine was fully established, with every hour being taken up with some camp activity.

The second period of the camp will begin next Tuesday and a few other boys are expected to enter at that time. A few of those going to camp Tuesday will remain only seven days and others expected to attend during the second period and it is urged that boys from every town and community in the county consider taking an outing at the camp. In fact, there is room for more boys right now, preparations being made for more than the number attending, and boys who wish to enter before the beginning of the second period may do so at any time.

The only requirement made of a boy is that he go to the George C. Wyatt and company store, sign a pledge that he will obey the camp rules and obtain a list of the things that he will need at the camp.

Public spirited men throughout the county are asked to select boys from their respective communities and send them to the camp for a week or ten days outing. There are doubtless boys in the county who would like to attend the camp but do not have the money to pay the maintenance expense—$4.00 for each seven day period. Men having an interest in boys are urgently requested to seek these boys out and send them to camp. All they need to do after signing the pledge and obtaining their equipment, is to report at the camp. A way will be provided for any boys who have no means of reaching the camp.

It is believed that the camp will be a much more enjoyable one than last year's due to the more advantageous site. The swimming facilities are a great improvement over last year and the ground is much better adapted for the purpose. The water supply is also splendid.

It was found last night that there was not enough cots to supply all

Nude Body of Bride of Five Months
Found Murdered With Hammer

Pittsburg, Pa., July 18—A brutal hammer murder was discovered by police today with the finding of the nude body of Mrs. Julia Coyne, 18, a bride of five months in her honeymoon cottage at Point Perry, near Braddock.

Only a few hours before the badly battered body was found, the husband Patrick Coyne, a brakeman lost both legs in falling from a train of cars and is reported dying in the West Pennsylvania hospital.

The girl's body was found by her father, John Conroy, who searched for her throughout the night to inform her of the accident to her husband.

HARDING FAILS TO SEE MENACE

Unimpressed By Returns From Minnesota Election, Believing Local Conditions Responsible

UNMOVED BY SEN. BROOKHART

Will Not Embark On Any Sudden
Farm Relief Movement—To Have
Cabinet Meeting On Alaska

(By United Press)
With President Harding, Seward, Alaska, July 18.—President Harding is unimpressed by the political menace seen in the Minnesota senatorial election, which he thinks resulted entirely from local conditions.

Warning of Senator Brookhart that something must be done for the farmers if the republican administration expects to win in 1924 has also left the president unmoved.

He will not embark on any sudden farm relief program. He is of the opinion that efforts to save the farmers or any other class by artificial means, such as congressional legislation is as futile as for a man to attempt to lift himself by his own bootstraps.

Farmers and all other classes must work out their own salvation with whatever help the government can give in the normal regular way, the president feels.

If the farmer spokesmen, like Brookhart, will frame specific recommendations for helping the farmer, they will be given administration consideration, Harding will assure them, but he holds that congress has already gone about as far as it can in helping agriculture and time must now be given the new farm credits act to work before any additional farm legislation will be sponsored.

Should farmers ask railroad rate reductions for their products they will be told that their interests in that regard are bound up with the interests of the entire nation and that congress will be invited to deal with the matter in December.

The administration has a program for the coming year mapped out and does not intend to be stampeded into modifying it. This program is to be withheld until early in 1924 as ground work for some items to be laid in the coming session of congress.

Brookhart's demand for a special session, therefore, will go unheeded.

Mr. Harding declined to discuss Henry Ford.

President Harding is going to have a cabinet meeting on Alaskan problems soon after boarding the transport Henderson for the return to the United States.

Radical Victory Of Magnus Johnson
In Minnesota Makes Third Party
Certainty, Belief

Victory of Magnus Johnson, farmer-laborite, in Minnesota's senatorial election, set a wagging political tongue on the subject of a possible "compromise" candidate between President Harding and the extreme "left wing" in the senate when 1924 republican nominations are considered.

In Washington, Frazier Edwards talking of Hiram Johnson, now on the high seas homeward bound from a European trip as the nominee.

In New York, Paul R. Mallon has learned that progressives in the Republican ranks are rapidly agreeing upon Judge William S. Kenyon of Iowa as the man to succeed President Harding as Republican standard bearer.

Arthur Capper, United States senator from Kansas, in an article written for the United Press, sees in the election of Magnus Johnson, farmer-labor candidate for the senate in Minnesota, a protest against "deplorable" farm conditions.

Senator Capper also said it was a manifestation of two things which farmers are greatly disturbed over—high freight rates and excessive tariff duties on necessities of life.

Washington, July 18.—A brand new presidential boom for Hiram Johnson as the compromise candidate between Mr. Harding and Senator LaFollette was being built today upon the wreckage of the Republican defeat in Minnesota.

Johnson's friends are not the only ones behind the boom. Some stand-pat leaders were discussing seriously the availability of the California senator for the Republican nomination to head off a third party move by Senator LaFollette.

While there is no apparent basis for assumption that a third party is to be a certainty there is no doubt that Republican leaders are giving this possibility close and serious attention. Agricultural discontent would give the Wisconsin senator better than an even break in the west, it was conceded.

Taggart's Visit to Indianapolis
Viewed as Preliminary to Gubernatorial Announcement

HIS CHOICE FOR GOVERNOR

Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—Democratic campaign plans for Indiana were taking definite shape today with another visit of Thomas Taggart to Indianapolis.

One of the results of his present activities is expected to be the early announcement of the candidacy of Dr. Carleton B. McCullough for the nomination for governor.

McCullough will be the Taggart candidate, it is generally understood among the Democratic workers. If McCullough does not get the nomination it will be because Taggart has less influence on the party than he had in previous years.

Taggart is not talking politics for publication, but he is mighty active. There are still other gubernatorial booms, but they are "unofficial". Friends of William M. O'Brien of Lawrenceburg have been trying to get the Taggart O. K.

Dale Crittenden, Anderson editor and former auditor of state, also has a weather eye out for the drift of sentiment in the forthcoming race.

SPEAKS TO THE ROTARY CLUB

Rushville Man Says Foundation For
Better Home Life Be Laid
Through Boys Work

Richmond, Ind., July 18.—Laying the foundation for better home life through work among boys formed the theme of an address given to the Rotary club Tuesday by Will M. Sparks of Rushville, judge of the Rush circuit court. Judge Sparks drew upon his experience as a jurist to illustrate many of the points which he brought forward in the course of his talk.

"In all my experiences as a judge I have never tried a divorce case, have never seen one on the docket and never heard of one where the man and woman both attended church regularly," he declared in emphasizing the belief that the church is one of the strongest influences for good home life.

"The great trouble with the children who come before our juvenile courts and charity boards seems to lie in their home life—a thing that we can remedy," he said.

A plea for a more intimate relationship between the business men and the boys of the city in which they live was embodied in the address. Expressing the belief that another man can often exert more influence on a boy's life than can his own father, the speaker urged the men of his audience to cultivate the boys of their neighborhoods, learn their nicknames and never pass by an opportunity to gain their confidence and friendship.

"There is something down in their little breasts that you can appeal to," he said. "In all my experience with boys, I have met only two who went back on their word."

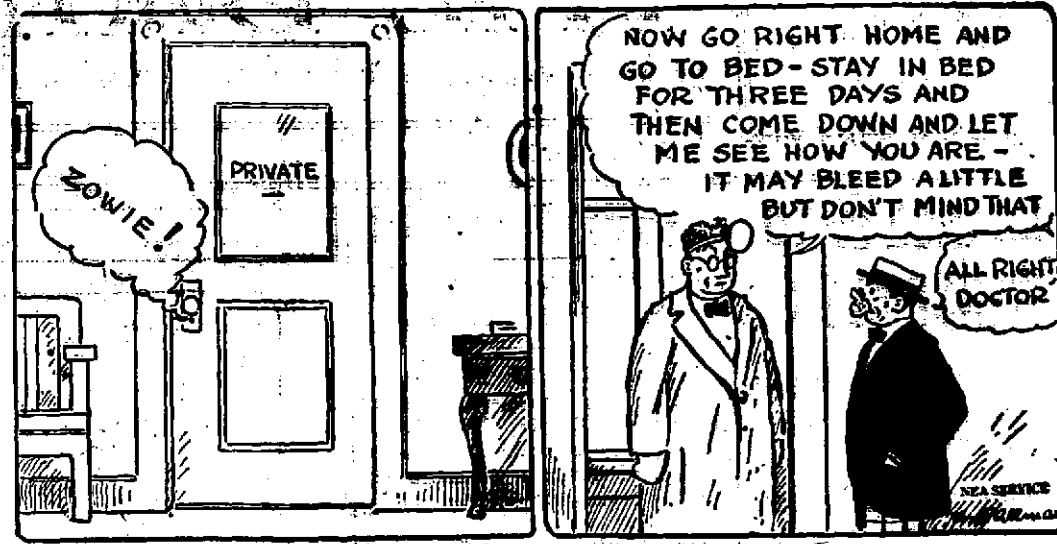

Judge Sparks declared that wonderful results could be, and have been achieved by a more active interest in boys on the part of men, and that the better the boys are, can come to a boy in this way may be the means of changing his entire life.

In closing his address, Judge Sparks deplored what he sees as a tendency for over-developed "intellectualism" to endanger religious life.

HARDING STUDIES ALASKA RAILWAY

President Makes Trip Over Railroad
From Seward to Fairbanks, And
Sees Future Possibilities

BIG DEFICIT NOW EXISTS

Congress May be Asked to Give Aid
to Railroad That is Striving to
Help Develop Alaska

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

(Copyright 1923, by United Press)
Fairbanks, Alaska, July 18.—Having studied the Alaskan railroad over its entire length and, having considered the possibilities of growth and development, President Harding is committed to maintenance of the road in the most economical fashion until a broader program is warranted.

He believes the present, and the immediate future promise nothing in the way of development of the vast stretches of country through which the line runs from Seward to Fairbanks.

Even development of the tourist possibilities of the southern portion depends on furnishing adequate water transportation which is not yet developed in any way toward the north-bound attractive.

Mr. Harding probably will, ask congress to pay the deficit of the Alaskan railroad this year, but he urges here that the deficits be kept at the lowest possible figure. The deficit is estimated at about $1,500,000 this year.

Officials pointed out to him the large standardized last section line from Fairbanks to Tanana bridge has just been finished.

Mr. Harding upon his return may have to decide between Anchorage and Seward as the ocean terminal of the railroad. Seward is on Resurrection Bay and has a fine harbor. Anchorage is not as good, but shows great possibilities of development. The growth of Anchorage was made to order. It is a railroad town built by engineers who wanted to construct the railroad in two sections.

Seward was the terminal of the old Alaska Northern, Guggenheim and Morgan property, which was taken over as a speculative proposition and the government was induced to buy it when it decided to build the railroad.

Everyone now admits that the government was stung when it paid more than million dollars for the property as the whole line had to be scrapped and rebuilt and even the route changed in some places. That is one of the "scandals" about which the Alaskans talk in connection with the railroad.

Anchorage has been given government favors as officials want to make it a sea terminus. That means gradual death by decay to Seward. Anchorage wants to be the capital seat of the territory, which is hotly resented by Juneau on the Southern coast. Juneau has no apparent reason to exist outside of being the capital. If that honor is removed Juneau probably will die.

President Harding, however, will oppose any effort to cripple the road as he feels time will justify the great experiment. Even though the country might be willing to pay something for pioneering into a new country that might some day be of great strategic value.

CARD OF THANKS

It is our desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father, Mr. Patrick Barrett. Wife and Family

LAW TAKES JOY FROM PROMOTION

Securities Commission Shall Regulate Amount and Value of Securities of Promoter

FILED WITH SECRETARY

Promoter Must Have Money For Purchaser Before He Can Hope to Make Money Himself

By MAURICE L. MENDENHALL
(Member Indiana Securities Commission)

(Written for United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—The Indiana securities law takes the joy out of "promotion for promotion's sake" by providing that the securities commission shall regulate the amount and value of securities which the promoter will be permitted to take from the promotion of a company.

It regulates and limits the amount and the value of the securities which can be issued for patents, trade marks, leases, goodwill and other intangible assets.

Not only does the Securities law give the Indiana Securities Commission the power above stated but it provides further that all the securities which are authorized to be issued for intangible assets must be filed with the Secretary of the State until such time as all individuals who have paid for their securities in cash have received at least one six percent dividend out of the net earnings of the company.

In other words, under our present system, the promoter must make money before he can hope to make money for himself.

In the old days the promoter issued to himself an unlimited amount of securities for promotion services or for other intangible assets and generally sold these securities to the unsuspecting public.

Very frequently, under this system the purchaser awoke to the fact that he had purchased securities belonging to the promoter, that the promoter had received all the money, and that he held stock in a corporation which had not a single dollar in the treasury.

The old system encouraged graft, deception and fraud. The new system encourages honest promotion and development, provides an incentive for hard work and square dealing and makes the promotion of a new enterprise unattractive to persons who are dishonest.

In thirty-one months of operation, the Indiana Securities Commission has authorized the issuance of $9,435,782 worth of securities. In addition, it has authorized the issuance of 55,500 shares of no par-value stock for promotion purposes. All of this stock is being held in the vaults of the Securities Commission until each purchaser of securities for cash has received one six percent dividend out of the earnings of the company.

Mystery Picture At Mystic

One of the most fascinating mystery stories ever put into motion pictures is presented in "The Blue Mountain Mystery," which will be the feature attraction at the Mystic today only. Here is the situation—you can try your own solution:

Henry Tracey, a millionaire, is found murdered in his room in a big hotel, during the height of a thunder-storm, while a brilliant ball is taking place on the floor below. In the same corridor with Tracey are the rooms of Mrs. Tracey, a second wife, married while his daughter Pauline was away on a three-year tour; of the daughter, and of Hector Blunt, a rejected suitor of Pauline.

Pauline and her father have been heard quarreling earlier in the evening. Later, when the shot is heard, Blunt says he saw Pauline walking as if in a daze, from the direction of her father's room, a smoking revolver in her hand. The weapon disappears, but is later dug up in the fireplace in Blunt's room. Mrs. Tracey says that she was in the ballroom and heard nothing.

Who killed Henry Tracey, and why? It is a thrilling story, and there is a startling twist to it that will amaze and fascinate.

Bebe Daniels At Princess

The Paramount picture, "The Exciters," co-starring Bebe Daniels and Antonio Moreno, will be seen today and Thursday at the Princess.

The story is a mile-a-minute tale of a mile-a-minute girl, for Ronnie Rand, portrayed by Miss Daniels, was born on an express train traveling sixty miles an hour. This dismayed her Aunt Veronica, who predicted that Ronnie would be marked as sure as fate. But she wasn't and she wasn't even scratched in her many daring escapades. Speed is her mania.

In order that Aunt Veronica's money should remain in the Rand family, Ronnie is required to marry before reaching the age of twenty-one. One day, she is injured in an airplane crash and she meets Pierre Martel, played by Antonio Moreno. He carries the injured girl to safety and wins her heart. But lo! He is a crook. Not until after the wedding ceremony does the girl discover this, and then—divorce? Pierre, acting by order of his confederates, demands a huge sum for the annulment of the marriage, but it only eluded by Ronnie. Would he sell his wife? Then comes a smashing climax.

In the supporting cast are Burr McIntosh, Diana Allen, Cyril Ring, Bigelow Cooper, Ida Darling, Jane Thomas, Allan Simpson, George Beckas and others. The story, adapted by John Colton and Sonya Levien, was directed by Maurice Campbell.

Chicago Tailor Sought As Slayer Of Cologero Salerno, Contractor

Chicago, July 18.—Ambresto Gilberto, a tailor, alleged to have eloped recently with the victim's wife, was hunted by police today as the slayer of Cologero Salerno, a contractor.

Frank, 13, the slain man's son, said Gilberto was taken into his father's home when he was penniless and begging for a place to sleep. Shortly afterwards Gilberto and Mrs. Salerno disappeared.

Salerno was shot down on a crowded street. The assailant leaped into a car driven by Charles Goetz, ordering him to "drive like hell." When the auto was stalled by traffic, Goetz was shot and probably fatally wounded.

Mrs. Salerno was taken into custody at the "love nest" where police say she and Gilberto lived but refused to talk.

Telltale Symptoms of Woman's Ills

Every woman who suffers from headache, dizziness, dragging-down pains, nervousness, irregularities, displacements, irritability, or dependency should recognize in such symptoms some derangement of her system which should have attention before some more serious ailment develops. These conditions are often evidenced by a sallow complexion, dark circles under the eyes, lassitude and sleeplessness. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been pre-eminently successful in overcoming such conditions, and it is now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

A BENEDICTION:—Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.—2 Corinthians 13: 11.

A Local Disturbance

The election of Magnus Johnson as United States senator from Minnesota is little more than a local political disturbance; it can scarcely be regarded as anything else, because most any sort of a political upheaval may be expected from a state that elected Senator Shipstead, and that feeds on the propaganda from neighboring states that elect the LaFolletes and the Brookharts.

The republicans in Minnesota are explaining the defeat of the organization candidate by asserting that it was the candidate and not the party that met defeat. Whatever the causes were that operated to place in the United States a man whose chief claim to greatness lies in his foreign voice, it is not any signal that the country is headed toward perdition, politically, or that the conditions which brought about the election of Johnson exist elsewhere in the United States.

The victory of the farmer-labor candidate has caused others of like ilk to grow bold and imagine that the people of Minnesota have expressed the views of the United States. Senator Brookhart is just back from Russia with the assertion that the soviet regime is the most stable gov-

Rushville Club Will Probably Follow
Example of Other Cities Nearby
and Quit For Season

POOR CROWDS, BIG EXPENSE

Greensburg Baseball Team Disband-
ed and Other Clubs are Reported
Operating at a Loss

Semi-professional baseball in eastern Indiana is about to pass out for this season, according to all indications from surrounding towns and cities, in which financial troubles are facing the managements. Included in the list is the Rushville ball club, which in all indications is about to quit.

The game scheduled for Sunday at Cambridge City was called off last night when the manager of the Cambridge City team notified the local management that the town was not supporting a ball club, and they were thinking of quitting.

When Rushville played at Richmond last Sunday, in a city of 25,000 people, there were less than 400 people at the game. The same thing was true at Greensburg, and the Eagles also quit last Sunday and have rented their park to another team.

Columbus is reported to be showing a financial loss. Seymour is said to be the only team in this vicinity that is holding the crowds, which is due largely to the fact that the city has a first rate club.

Comersville is not drawing large crowds this season, but their expenses are not as great as most teams, because their ball players are from their own city, and do not demand as much money as a hired team.

Ball players this year have aided a great deal in the downfall of the game, because they have asked too much money for their services. The Rushville team, which lacked a great deal of being a wonderful club, was costing more than a $100 a game to be placed in the field, and $160 should put a first team in the field. Pitchers hold out for $35 and $50 and are not worth that much, because if they were worth the price, they would be playing professional ball, and not in the amateur class.

While Richmond, Cambridge City, Rushville, Comersville and Greensburg are closing up shop for the season, along comes Newcastle with the plan on foot to organize a team, and put it in the field on August 5.

Newcastle has been without a representative team for several years, and some of the fans in that city believe the time is ripe to re-organize. The outcome of finances of this club will be watched by some of the nearby cities.

Although the high salaried ball players have been greatly responsible for the downfall, yet it is generally conceded that automobiles have done much to keep away the crowds. Sunday motoring parties take hundreds of ball fans from a city, and interest this year seems to be lacking among the sports.

Just what action will be taken in regard to the Rushville club will be made known in a day or so, but so far this week four games have been cancelled by neighboring cities, who say they are throwing up the sponge for the season, and it is indicated that the local managers will follow their action.

Yanks Do Well

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 18—America has carried off the honors in early season international sport competition. Yankee athletes, who sailed to Europe this spring and summer to meet the best of the old continent in competition, have returned with unprecedented laurels.

The American Walker cup team started things off when, with a brilliant sport the U. S. golfers came from behind and downed the Britishers. It was a victory for Yankee coolness and courage.

Then Charlie Paddock went to France, despite the protestations of the A. A. U. and smashed a few sprint records for French spectators. The American girl swimming champions also went over, but they heeded the demands of the A. A. U. and did not compete.

William M. Johnston borrowed a tennis racket and cleaned up the hard courts at St. Cloud, France, defeating all comers for the championship of the world.

American golf professionals went to Troon and, although they lost first place to the brilliant Britisher Arthur Havers, they took the next three places and played the best collective golf of the tournament. In prize matches they carried the honors and won most of the money.

Then, for the climax Johnston and Francis T. Hunter decided to stage an all-American finals in the All-England tennis tournament. They beat down the British men in the singles and won first and second place for America.

Only Vincent Richards, the youthful Yonkers star, fell below the mark that had been hopefully set for him, but the performance of Johnston and Hunter more than made up for this.

The matches at Wimbledon proved what already had been known—that the United States probably has the best three tennis players in the world. The three can be selected from William T. Tilden, the champion; Bill Johnston, Francis Hunter and Vincent Richards.

With this array of stars there seems to be no doubt about who is going to retain the Davis Cup.

But it also was shown that America is woefully weak in the doubles, mixed doubles and women's singles. This is a situation that should be remedied, if someone could induce the stars to bend their efforts toward team play.

It is not enough that America should have the best players. She should have the best teams.

NO DEMPSEY-GIBBONS FIGHT IN THIS STATE

Indianapolis, July 18—There will be no Dempsey-Gibbons fight in Indiana on Labor day, or any other day, for that matter, as long as Governor McCray has the say.

The Governor refused to give his permission for the bout which is being sought by a group of local promoters headed by J. L. Baugh, of the Union-Wire and Steel Co.

The promoters declare they have pledged for the necessary funds and that they are in touch with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, for the bout.

Following Governor McCray's stand against the fight, the promoters appealed to the war department at Washington for permission to hold the fight on the military reservation at Fort Harrison, which, they believe, is outside the jurisdiction of the governor of Indiana.

Governor McCray, however, will call on the attorney general for an opinion in the event the promoters gain permission from the war department to have the fight on the military reservation.

Col. Allen Parker, commandant at Fort Harrison, refused to become mixed in the squabble. "It's entirely up to the war department," he said.

If the fight is held, the promoters say they will give 50 percent of the proceeds to disabled soldiers.

The Score Board

Homers by Snyder and Grob produced four runs and gave the Giants a 7 to 3 victory over the Cubs.

Adolfo Luque, star pitcher of the season, hurled the Reds to a double victory over the Braves at 4 to 3 and 9 to 5. He went six innings of the first game and the entire distance in the second.

Hauser's homer was the only tally counted off Cuyegros and the Athletics lost to the White Sox 1 to 8. George Uhle let the Yanks down with four feeble hits and the Indians won 13 to 0. Babe Ruth and Bengough were the only Yanks to get as far as second.

Four singles, a double and a triple accounted for six runs in the fourth inning and the Robins won from the Pirates 6 to 2.

Fred Toney bettered Jimmy Ring in a pitcher's battle, and the Cards beat the Phils 2 to 1 in ten innings.

Steady pitching by Johnson enabled the Tigers to beat the Senators 4 to 2.

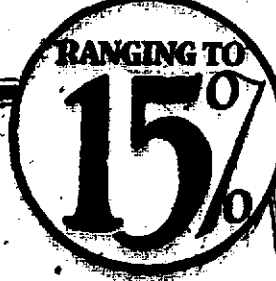

Dave Danforth pitched great ball, and the Browns made it five straight over the Red Sox with a 10 to 1 win.

FIGHT BEFORE END OF YEAR SETTLED

Positively Determined Dempsey Will Meet Firpo, But Beyond That Nothing is Definite

LABOR DAY IS PREFERRED

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 18—Another promise of something today or tomorrow about the Dempsey-Firpo heavyweight championship match was made today by Tex Rickard.

"There are just a few details to get straightened out before I can make a definite announcement of when and where the match is to be held," Rickard said.

Rickard was willing to say positively that the South American would meet Dempsey for the title before the end of the year, either in the United States or South America.

"I have Firpo under contract to meet Dempsey this year and if I am unable to make the match, I am no promoter," Rickard said.

Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, takes the stand that he does not care where the fight is to be held. He is more interested in the date, as he wants to send Dempsey against Firpo and Wills before the end of the year.

Kearns prefers Labor day for the Firpo match and he wants the Wills bout in or near New York around world's series time. Getting a world's heavyweight championship near the time of the baseball classic may cause the major magnates to froth some more and they have been frothing plenty all summer because so many fine boxing cards have been placed in competition with the "grand old national pastime."

SPORT CHATTER

Baltimore—Reports that could not be confirmed were circulated here that Joe Boley, star short stop of the Baltimore Orioles has been sold to the New York Yankees for delivery at the end of the season. The club refused a major league offer of $125,000 for Boley early in the season.

London—Strained muscles sustained in training may prevent Olaus and Rasmussen, star Yale sprinters from competing for the Yale-Harvard team when it meets the Oxford-Cambridge team here Saturday.

New York—Clarence "Peck" Griffin of California, former national doubles champion, has joined the list of stars who will compete for the coming national tennis classics. Griffin is to play with William M. Johnston in the doubles.

St. Louis—The winning spurt of the St. Louis Browns has restored confidence in the team here, and rumors that Lee Fohl was to be deposed as manager of the team, heard some time ago, have been forgotten.

New York—Johnny Buff, former flyweight and bantamweight champion, reached the end of his string last night when he was stopped in the ninth round by Harry Cateno, New York flyweight.

The K. of C.'s and their families will hold a picnic Sunday at Green's Camp. All members of the lodge including their families are invited.

Mrs. John Gray was hostess to the members of the Get-To-Gether club and one guest, Mrs. John H. Frazier, Tuesday afternoon at her home in North Perkins street. The ladies enjoyed an informal afternoon over their needlework and light refreshments were served during the afternoon.

The Auxiliary Club was delightfully entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. William Bainbridge in East Third street. The home was prettily decorated for the meeting with flags and summer flowers. An interesting literary program was given, which was followed by serving of refreshments by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Sarah Guffin and Mrs. Mae Mitchell.

Miss Dorothy Meyers entertained with a lawn party Monday evening at her home in Arlington honoring her house guest, Miss Alice Crim of Dayton, Ohio. The guests were Dorothy Schaffer, Frances Boren, Clara Martz, Ruth Miller, Leona Wright, Meryl Meyers, Clarence Schaffer, Robert Meyers, Lowell Clifford, Eugene Moore, Clet Meyers, Hugh Miller, Robert Clark and Edwin Newhouse.

Mrs. Errol Stoops, assisted by Mrs. Gibson Ross and Mrs. Russell Barringer, entertained the members of the Loyal Daughters class of the Main Street Christian Sunday school Tuesday evening at her home in North Perkins street. A business meeting was held, and many important matters were discussed at this meeting. A short program was given, including musical selections and a Bible reading by Mrs. John Nipp. Delicious refreshments were served as the close of the evening by the hostess and her assistant.

"Buddhism In Our Own Country" was the subject discussed at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary

Indiana Lady Says She Was Run-Down, Suffered With Her Back, Took Cardui, and Got Well.

Richmond, Ind.—"I thought I would write a line or so, to say that I owe my good health and strength to Cardui," says a letter from Mrs. Cora Courtney, 31 Railroad Street, this city.

"I was all run-down until my family thought they would lose me," writes Mrs. Courtney. "My husband coaxed me to take Cardui, so, to please him, I did, and will say I do not regret it, for I am able to do all my work and do my shopping."

"I have five children, four in school, my husband and a boarder to do for, and I do all my own work for all of us, and find time to play. We all praise Cardui. Every sick and run-down woman should take this wonderful medicine."

"I suffered with my back; a very weak feeling in my limbs."

"I felt hardly able to drag; just tired—so tired all the time."

"It was an effort for me to do anything, but Cardui helped me so I felt like a different woman."

If you are in a run-down physical condition, suffering as this Indiana lady says she did, give Cardui a fair trial. It should help you.

congestion for about 100 feet off Main street on Saturday nights. The petition stated that on account of the congestion, people were unable to reach stores, and some of the business suffered.

The petition was aimed directly at the Salvation Army and other religious meetings held on the corner, because it is said they block the sidewalk and streets at the busiest corner in the city. The petition was granted and a committee appointed by the mayor to notify the Salvation army captain to change his location to the court house lawn, and the police will be notified to prevent other services from being held at the Second and Main street corner. Complaint of men and boys riding bicycles on sidewalks has reached the mayor and police, and several accidents have resulted recently. The police have been notified to bring all boys and men in court for violating the ordinance, and a second offense will mean a fine.

The contract for the purchase of the Memorial park was signed and approved, and an ordinance drawn up in which the city will request a $24,000 bond issue to make the purchase and necessary improvements.

The bond issue will extend over a period of 12 years, payable $2,000 a year and interest. The bonds will bear 5 percent, and will be in denominations of $500 each. The first bond will fall due sixteen months from September first.

The garbage contract which will expire with Rex Innis July 24, has been given to Joe Caldwell. The bids were received at the last meeting, and taken under consideration until last night, when his low bid of $699 was approved. His bid is almost one-half of what the contract has been for the past two years.

The bids and contracts for the work of remodeling the city water and light plant were taken up, and in most cases the bonds were approved, and the various contracts signed.

High hopes were entertained that the Baldwin government would in some way or another not definite put an end to the deadlock of the Ruhr and reparations situations. Such hopes never had any foundation in fact and never can have as long as the French people support Poincare's policy.

For this ferment of expectation the government itself is largely responsible by suggesting that Baldwin might succeed in bringing France around where Bonar Law failed, whereas in reality, as the Daily Express pointed out at this time, his only contribution to this subject was a "new brand of optimism."

Having set this note for themselves, the ministers must not blame the country if it exhibits some disappointment now that Poincare's speech has ended the high hopes of the nation.

CAMP ROUTINE IS ESTABLISHED

the boys and the camp equipment committee went to Indianapolis this morning to purchase several army cots, which were to be delivered to the camp this afternoon. There was also a shortage of mess kits, due to the fact that several of the boys in camp this year did not attend last year. All boys in 1922 camp were given their mess kits.

STRAW CATCHES FIRE

Burning straw in the Pennsylvania railroad stock yards caused the fire department to make a run at 11:40 this morning to the vicinity of Second and Washington streets, but no damage resulted from the blaze.

COMPROMISE IS BEING DISCUSSED

conferred and decided to back William S. Kenyon of Iowa, former senator of now federal judge, for presidency of the United States in the 1924 election.

An effort will be made, it is predicted, to put Kenyon before the Republican convention as an opposition candidate to President Harding.

If he fails of nomination, an independent movement probably will be started.

Kenyon was selected, the United Press ascertained today as a compromise choice between the varying progressives. It is believed, he, more than any other man can attempt to join the dissatisfied Republican elements, the near-progressives and the ultra-progressives.

Those who are backing the movement say Kenyon would have the farmer vote, the soldier vote and the labor vote. He could come nearer than anyone to joining the Borah group, the Johnson group, the La Follette group, the Norris group and all these other various groups which—while they sympathize in most principles—vary widely in others.

By SENATOR ARTHUR CAPPER

(Written for United Press)
Topeka, Kans., July 18—The Minnesota election is a plain case of protest against deplorable conditions prevailing throughout agricultural west. The farmer today is compelled to take less than cost of production for wheat and other farm commodities while nearly everything he buys is still sold at near war prices.

Agricultural relief organization by the last congress did not consist of instantaneous panacea but of constructive measures in which farmers themselves must co-operate to realize on them. The efforts have not had time to be tried out and to produce results. In the meantime Minnesota electors by their votes have given notice that profiteering must stop; that the perfectly evident economic wrongs of which they are still victims must be righted immediately and that the farmer's dollar must be worth as much as that of anyone else in its purchasing power.

Two factors that I believe had great influence in the Minnesota election, and that farmers throughout the west are greatly disturbed over, are high freight rates and excessive tariff duties on necessities of life.

The Minnesota vote is notice of the farmers' demand for freight charges that farm prices can pay. These rates today are higher than the traffic will bear. It is also a plain demand for further reduction in tariff duties. The tariff commission and the president must give relief under the authority conferred by the Fordney-McCumber act or the next congress will promptly revise the tariff downward in a way that will make drastic reductions.

BIRTHS

A baby girl weighing seven and one-quarter pounds was born to the wife of Minor Bell in Union township Monday afternoon. The baby has been named Bessie Irene.

BACK FROM A LONG JOURNEY

American Legion Commander Visited In Forty-Five States

Indianapolis, Ind., July 18.—Alvin Owsley, national commander of the American Legion is back at Legion headquarters here today after a tour which carried him into forty-five states.

Owsley reports that the public is heartily in favor of the program laid down by the Legion for adequate national preparedness and conscription of wealth as well as men in time of war.

Although the Legion is not in politics, many Legionnaires are holding prominent offices, Owsley said.

He will leave Sunday to attend state Legion conventions in Utah and Nevada.

"Boy Hero" of the Civil War Is Dead at Brazil, Ind.

Brazil, Ind., July 18—Funeral services for John Sharp, 78, known as "the boy hero" of the Civil war because of his record during the conflict between the states, were held here today.

Sharp, a native of Scotland, enlisted as a fifer in the union army at the age of 16 years. He was a favorite with his regiment and one of the members wrote a poem in commemoration of the boy hero.

A French Beauty

Taught me how to clean my skin

By Edna Wallace Hopper

My youthful beauty at my grand old age is due to French creations. And I served France for 52 months in the War to help repay that debt.

Now I am doing more. I am sharing those helps with others. I am supplying them at modest prices to dealers everywhere. And I am taking time in a busy life to tell the facts about them.

After 32 years as a stage star I still play young girls' parts. I look a girl, as thousands of you know. I looked no younger 40 years ago. Now you are welcome to the same helps I employ.

A liquid cleanser

One great help is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth, Lucie Lantelme, the famous Parisian beauty, gave me the formula many years ago. Now the World's greatest beauty experts are advising and employing it. But their price is too high for most women.

Facial Youth contains no animal, no vegetable oil. So it cannot grow hair on the face. It cannot assimilate in any way with the skin. But it penetrates the skin to the depths. When I wipe it off, all that clogs the skin comes with it. he skin is absolutely clean.

Facial Youth also carries factors to whiten and firm the skin. There is lemon in it. I see new bloom and beauty every time I use it.

You'll be surprised
Clean your face in your way, then in mine. You will be amazed at the extra dirt which Facial Youth removes. Much of a cleansing cream always remains. Facial Youth all departs.

I anoint my whole body with Facial Youth before I take a bath. And I get out clogging matter which water cannot reach.

Utter cleanliness is beauty's first essential. Facial Youth is now recognized, all the world over, as the best way to attain it. Once you use it you will never return to the greasy cleansing creams. We stage women use it for removing all our make-ups now.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is now supplied by all druggists, all toilet goods dealers Price 75c per bottle, and it goes far. They also supply my Youth Cream—my fruity cold cream should follow. Also my Hair Youth, which brought my luxuriant hair. My Beauty Book comes with each.

Try this new-day cleanser—my Facial Youth. If the first bottle fails to delight you, your dealer will return your money.
